

SETTING UP TRAVEL HEALTH CLINICS IN PHARMACY CHECKLIST

The following checklist is for pharmacists wishing to set up a travel health service. This list is not exhaustive but is a supporting guide to allow pharmacists to identify what else they may need to consider before starting the service.

	Completed		Completed
Register and complete the Neva neva-training.com online travel health training (contains promotional content)	<input type="checkbox"/>	Provide operational guidance for support staff	<input type="checkbox"/>
Go to VIP (a promotional website) via vip.valnevauk.com for extra support	<input type="checkbox"/>	Ensure team understand the process for reporting adverse events	<input type="checkbox"/>
Ensure PGD provider is sourced or independent prescriber	<input type="checkbox"/>	Engage with the extended clinic healthcare team so they understand their role in delivering the travel health service	<input type="checkbox"/>
Ensure practical immunisation training is up to date	<input type="checkbox"/>	Design and develop a vaccination and malaria prophylaxis service price list	<input type="checkbox"/>
Upload your clinic details to bewareofthebugs.com website or contact Valneva here to register your clinic on Beware of the Bugs	<input type="checkbox"/>	Download your service / disease awareness and marketing materials from the Resources section of the VIP website or alternatively design in-house	<input type="checkbox"/>
Download the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow's Good Practice Guidance for Providing a Travel Health Service	<input type="checkbox"/>	Promote your service in the clinic (e.g. POS, till prompts, leaflets) and on your website. Update your Google Business Profile to reflect your services	<input type="checkbox"/>
Source Products and Sundries:		Promote your service within your local community (e.g. GP Practices, mosques, travel agents, schools)	<input type="checkbox"/>
1. Vaccines, antimalarials	<input type="checkbox"/>	Look at link selling OTC products (e.g. OTC holiday medicines, suncreams, first aid kits, insect repellent)	<input type="checkbox"/>
2. Clinical/ sharps waste bin	<input type="checkbox"/>	Look at supporting websites and where possible sign up for updates, for example:	<input type="checkbox"/>
3. Adrenaline ampoules or auto-injectors all strengths: 150mcg, 300mcg, 500mcg	<input type="checkbox"/>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • TravelHealthPro - the website comprising the travel health resources of the National Travel Health Network and Centre (NaTHNaC) • ISTM - search for reputable clinics abroad • RCPSCG Faculty of Travel Medicine - clinical diploma • The Green Book • Monthly government vaccine update
4. 2ml syringes	<input type="checkbox"/>
5. Green and blue needles	<input type="checkbox"/>
6. Cotton wool	<input type="checkbox"/>
7. Spot plasters	<input type="checkbox"/>
8. Resuscitation mask	<input type="checkbox"/>
9. Safe, lockable storage for patient consent forms	<input type="checkbox"/>
Set up your consultation room	<input type="checkbox"/>
Identify additional resources and set-up on desktop	<input type="checkbox"/>
Update SOPs for vaccination services	<input type="checkbox"/>		